

JOURNAL OF THE ACADEMIE INTERNATIONALE DE LA PIPE

VOLUME 7

CONTENTS

Seventeenth to eighteenth-century Turkish pipes at Eger Castle by Emese Varga .....	1
‘Exotic imports’: an initial assessment of detachable tobacco pipe bowls and other smoking exotica used by the British at home and abroad by David A. Higgins .....	15
Ottoman clay pipes and Ottoman-style clay pipes: a review of some published research since 2000 by Peter Davey .....	65
Zwei bemerkenswerte Tabakspfeifenköpfe aus Wien (Österreich) und Ramsee (Bayern) – österreichische „Militärpfeifen“ aus dem frühen 18. Jahrhundert? by Nikolaus Hofer .....	73
The Dublin pipe trade in the 1830s to 1850s, with some comment on the trade outside Dublin by Joe Norton .....	79
The Limerick Pipe-makers’ Guild by Peter Davey .....	85
Victorian briar pipe enthusiasts by Andrew Aoba .....	93
Finely decorated wooden pipes from the collections of the Serbian rulers by Divna Gačić .....	103

REVIEWS

Wolfgang Cremer: Antike Pfeifen aus Deutschland und anderen Ländern and Antiken Tabakiana (außer Pfeifen) by Peter Davey .....	111
Clay Pipe Research 3 by Ruud Stam .....	112
John Endlich and Marius van Dam: Nederlandse zilveren tabaksdozen, 1650-1800. De Davis Collectie by Ruud Stam .....	113